Republicans Abroad is the international arm of the Republican Party, formed to enlist the personal energy and leadership of Republicans living overseas. In fact, more than six million Americans live abroad - a number larger than the populations of 24 states in the Union.

Republicans Abroad helps the Republican Party develop policy and campaign strategy at the highest levels. Financial contributions to Republicans Abroad are critically important to the GOP's ongoing party building, campaign, and candidate support activities.

At the same time, membership in Republicans Abroad provides a unique opportunity for Americans living overseas to communicate their concerns to Republican leaders in Washington. Republicans Abroad has fought for issues of concern to Americans abroad like repatriation issues, tax fairness, anti-terrorism legislation, fair trade policies, and the inclusion of the expatriate population in the United States Census.
